

César Beltetón Chacón

He is an Agricultural Engineer in Renewable Natural Resources from the Faculty of Agronomy of the Universidad de San Carlos de Guatemala (USAC). He holds a Master's degree in management and conservation of species in the framework of international trade, from the Universidad Internacional de Andalucía in Spain, and has a postgraduate degree in forest governance from the University of Wolverhampton in England. He has more than 20 years of experience in forest management in Guatemala.

For 12 years he has been chairman of the Working Group on Neotropical Tree Species listed in the CITES Convention and for 4 years representative for Central America, South America and the Caribbean to the CITES Plants Committee.